

Tateuchi East Asia Library

3rd Floor

Other Floors: 2M (Seminar Room), 2, 1M, 1 (Stacks)

Information Desk

Checking in/out books, information about reserves and collections. Feel free to come up and ask about the library!

Display

Currently publications from UW East Asian studies faculty are on display, along with special objects from collections.

New Arrivals

New books are featured on this display for about a month. (Categories: Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Taiwanese)

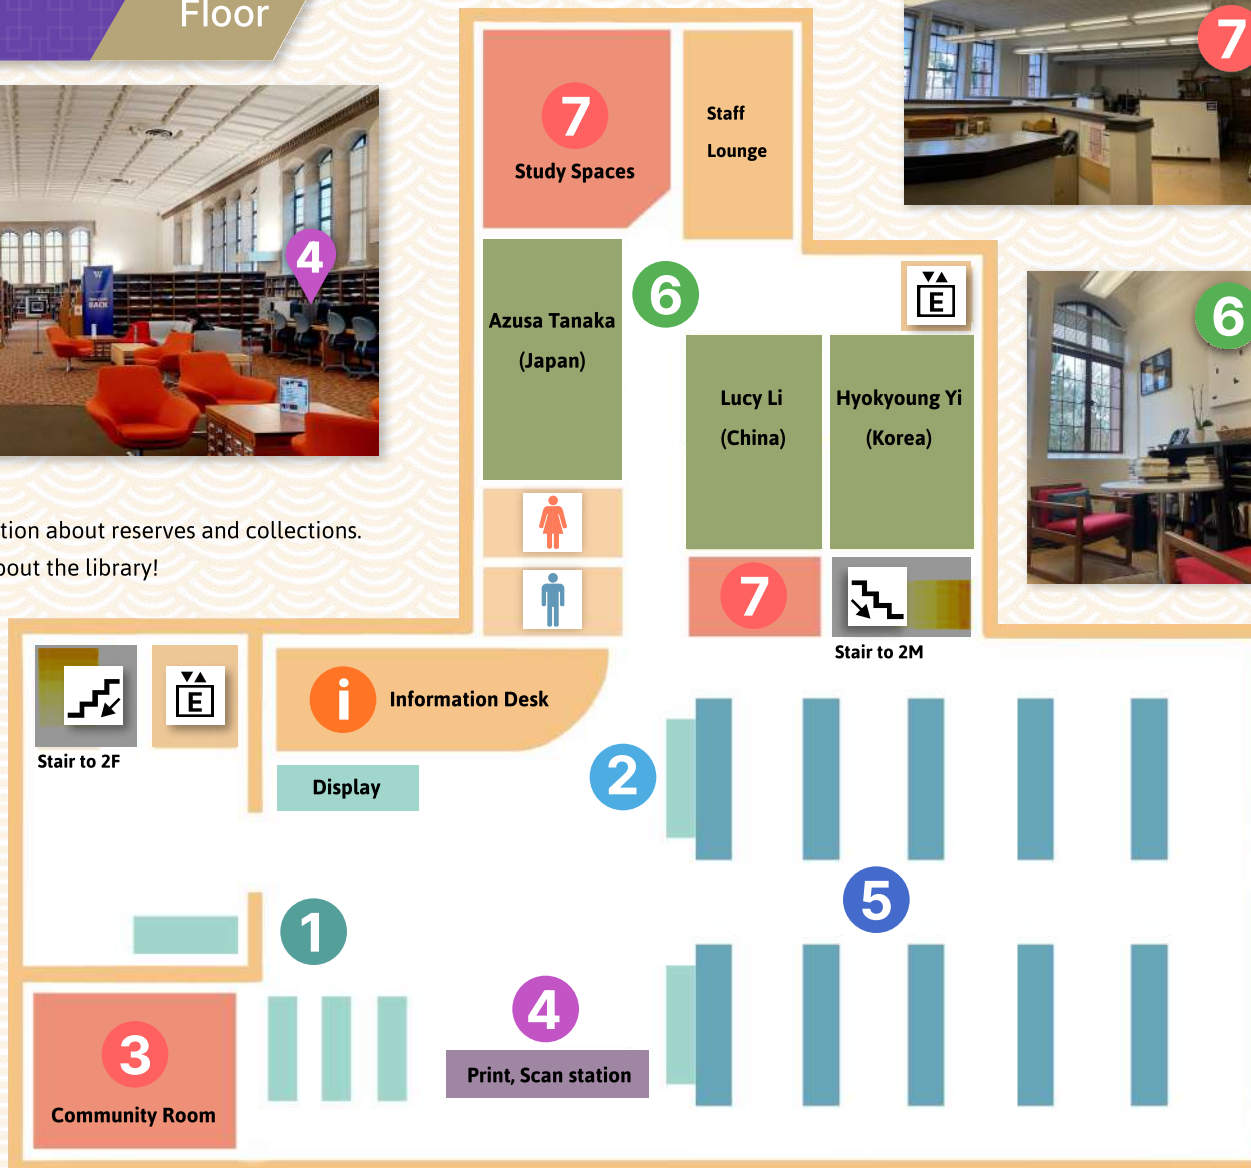

Community Room

This newly created space is great for students and faculty to have a small group discussion or seminar.

Artworks

From Japanese calligraphy to Korean photography, beautiful artworks are displayed on the walls in the library.

Quiet Study Spaces

We offer various reservable study spaces. In the next phases of TEAL's renovation, this space will be converted into instruction/seminar rooms

Librarians Office Area

China/Japan/Korea Studies librarians welcome appointments and/or walk-in consultations for any help with references.

Stacks and Study Spaces

A great place for focused studying. Library-use-only references, the Language Learning collection, and the initial part of circulating collection are shelved here.
